Seventh-day Adventists believe that the Bible is God's Word, and that the greatest need of every person is to know Jesus as a personal Savior.

We believe that all humanity is now involved in a great controversy between Christ and Satan regarding the character of God, His law, and His sovereignty over the universe.

Next Week’s Speaker: Next Sabbath, Pastor Diego will continue his series on the Protestant Reformation.

Protestant Reformation: October 31, 2017 will mark 500 years since Martin Luther published his 95 theses and launched the Protestant Reformation, a momentous religious revolution whose consequences we still live with today. The world shifted on its axis and has never been the same since; scholars trace the development of capitalism, the rise of public education, the importance of individual freedom and many other important aspects of the contemporary world to the ideas born in the early sixteenth century. In terms of religion, the Reformation led to a married clergy, an emphasis on family over celibacy, salvation by grace through faith (not through sacraments), the idea of “sola scriptura” (the idea that the Scriptures are infallible and the sole authority on spiritual matters), and much more.

“Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage.”

Galatians 5:1
